

HOLLOMBY FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

TERMS & CONDITIONS

ELIGIBILITY:

To be eligible for any scholarship through the Hollomby Foundation, you must be an Australian citizen, holder of an Australian Permanent Humanitarian Visa or a Permanent Resident of Australia.

- Students must be enrolled in three or more units per semester to be eligible.
- Final Year Internship students – Term 3 enrolments for final year internship will only be considered in the scholarship year that the internship commences. eg. Term 3 internship enrolment cannot be considered for a scholarship application in the following year.
- The Hollomby Foundation Committee of Management reserves the right to approve a course, or individual applicant for part-time enrolment, if deemed a special circumstance.

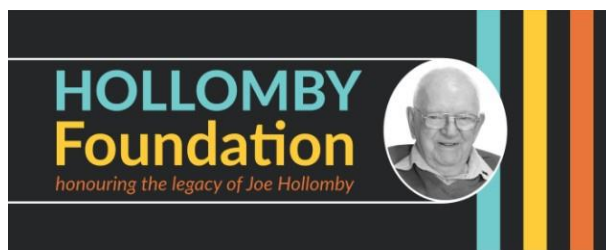

Additional details for eligibility of named scholarships are listed under each Scholarships heading on the GUC website: <https://www.guc.edu.au/students/scholarships/>

SELECTION PROCESS:

- 1 Applicants will be assessed for all scholarships for which they meet the eligibility criteria. Only complete, on time applications, with all necessary attachments will be considered.
- 2 Assessment will initially be based on the quality of written information provided by the applicant and their referee. Those rated highly may be short listed for interview.
- 3 The interview panel will consist of representatives of donors, the GUC Director and Hollomby Foundation Committee of Management representatives.
- 4 The Panel reserves the right to award scholarships in whole or in part to whomever it considers the most deserving applicants.
- 5 Scholarships shall only be awarded where applications of sufficiently high merit are received.
- 6 All applications will be treated in strictest confidence.
- 7 The decision of the Selection Panel will be final and binding.

CONDITIONS OF AWARD:

- 1 The Scholarships will be administered by the Geraldton Universities Centre.
- 2 The award will be paid in equal instalments at or after the census date in each semester of the year awarded. In the case of a split scholarship, one payment may be made following the first semester census date.
- 3 Payment of the Award is subject to maintaining enrolment (full or part time depending on the conditions of the awarded scholarship) and Good Standing with the delivering university.
- 4 A recipient with unsatisfactory standing or who breaches the scholarship conditions shall be ineligible to retain the scholarship.

- 5 If a recipient need to take leave of absence during the Scholarship year, the recipient must apply for and seek approval from the GUC Director to suspend the scholarship for the period of leave.
- 6 A recipient who withdraws from their course of study through the GUC during the year of the Scholarship will forfeit any future payment and will be required to repay the scholarship funds for that semester in full.
- 7 A recipient who transfers from their course of study at the GUC to another university during the scholarship period will forfeit any future payment and will be required to repay the scholarship funds for that semester in full.
- 8 Recipients of a Hollomby Foundation Scholarship are Ambassadors of the GUC. As such, recipients will be required from time to time to represent the GUC at functions and events.